- Scheduled Opening: Spring 2008
- Introduction: Nestled next to Beverly Hills on the Wilshire Corridor in Westwood Village, the Hotel Palomar Los Angeles fuses modern Hollywood glamour with a thoughtfully curated focus on the arts for a new experience in upscale boutique hotels. The Hotel Palomar Los Angeles, with its “Art in Motion” theme, pays homage to the City of Angels’ artistry in film, fashion, design, fine art and architecture – and seeks to incorporate a sense of beauty and inspiration into every guest’s stay. From elegant décor to state-of-the-art extras, thoughtful amenities and unparalleled service, the Hotel Palomar Los Angeles makes each guest’s stay a masterpiece.
- Location: Located in the Westwood Village neighborhood, Hotel Palomar Los Angeles is centrally located for easy access to Beverly Hills and shopping on Rodeo Drive, the breezy beaches of Venice and Santa Monica, the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and the J. Paul Getty Museum in Malibu. World-class shopping, restaurants, theaters and ample nightlife surround the Hotel Palomar Los Angeles.
- Curb Appeal: Combining classic California architecture and Hollywood glamour, the Hotel Palomar Los Angeles welcomes guests with a beautifully designed porte cochere. The canopied, half-moon drive which feeds in directly from Wilshire Boulevard, one of the world’s most famous thoroughfares, provides an entrance which recalls the fanfare of an elite red carpet event.
- Accommodations: The Hotel Palomar Los Angeles boasts 268 guest rooms including 30 suites (two presidential suites and 24 spa suites), 103 double-doubles and 135 guestrooms with king size beds.
